Subject: KG/Dastime claim for attorneys fees and costs re: petition to confirm Final Award and collection efforts

Counsel: Following up on my February 13 and subsequent communications: 1) your clients will not voluntarily pay the Final Award, requiring our clients to petition to confirm the award and to proceed with collection actions; 2) we are therefore also proceeding with our announced effort to seek all attorneys fees and costs expended to confirm and collect on the Award. If your clients have changed their position and will not immediately pay the Final Arbitration Award, please so inform us by noon Monday. Thanks. Neil

Yes, our perspective differs.

That delay is to give the parties a chance to make ministerial corrections. We can all stipulate to a shorter time period if you agree, or we can persuade JAMS to shorten the time period, or take other steps. Let me know if you can and will move faster than 30 days. If you can't, we'll move forward from there.

Neil,

I don't think you need to worry about asset disappearance, but I can understand that the view from your perspective is different. I am just trying to work through how to deal with the situation. I don't think you can move for confirmation of the award for 30 days under the JAMS rules anyway, and I think that will allow enough time for me to figure out where things stand. As I said, I will talk to you about specifics as soon as I can.

Understood. But we remain concerned about asset disappearance. We're constrained to view open-ended silence as compelling speedy confirmation and collection efforts, unless we enter into an asset protection arrangement. I take it you have no objection to us quickly moving for confirmation of the award, but let me know if you do.

Neil,

Speaking only for Mr. Kiritchenko, I may be in touch, but I'm not ready to talk yet.

Are you paying the award, declining to pay, or proceeding with litigation? If you are not paying, we will seek reimbursement of all additional legal fees and costs to collect from you and from additional parties behind or assisting you. Thanks. Neil
